NAMMA BENGALURU

The most obvious word to describe Bangalore is simply 'COOL'. Be it the people, places or the weather, Bangalore thrives to be the fastest growing cosmopolitan city in Asia. The capital of Karnataka takes proud in housing the most high tech industries in India.

Not only it's a throbbing tourist destination but has the potential to call people from all over to world to inhabit. Being such a darling the city has got the pet names like The Garden City, The Silicon Valley, The Byte Basket and it goes on with the hearts of the people growing fonder.

Not only to the geeks, is the city also dear to those who know the real meaning of celebrations and enjoyment. Bangalore is the gateway to the best gardens & parks, natural lakes, architectural landmarks, shopping malls, the best restaurants and pubs. The weather of the city makes it all the more tempting to visitors. Bangalore has everything for everyone who comes here to enthrall him or herself with its charisma. Music and dance concerts (Western and Indian), dramas, exhibitions, carnivals and more. You never have an end to enjoyment if you are in this part of the globe.

Relish the best culinary inventions, relax in the restaurants, watch your favorite movie stars, sway your hips in the discos, sip the martinis in the pubs and if this is not the end for you shop till you drop.

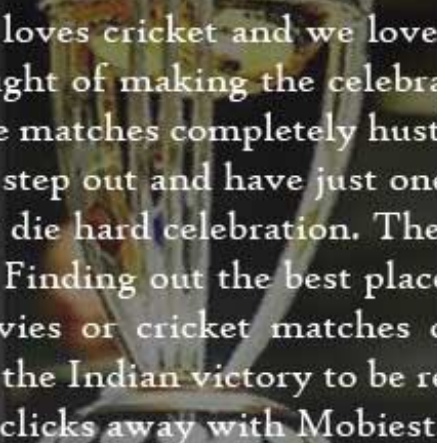

Bangalore has just got to say "Ayyo! Adella yake bidi" (You're Welcome)
